

CONFERENCES

The 14th annual conference ADIT 2010 "Cultural Heritage and Information Technologies"
Krasnodar (Russia) 7 -11 June 2010

The conference was held in Krasnodar, Russia, 7-11 June 2010. "Automation Directions in museums and Information Technologies" (ADIT) is a non-profit partnership of museums and other memory institutions and professionals. It was founded in 1996 by the three important Russian museums - State Museum-Reserve "Moscow Kremlin", State Tretyakov Gallery and the Pushkin Museum of Fine Arts. In June 1996 Presidium of Russian ICOM voted ADIT to become its professional Committee for information technologies in museums.

The 15th annual conference of ADIT will be organised in Minsk, Byelorussia in May 2011 with the topic "Cultural Heritage and Information Technologies in Post-Soviet Area"

More information available at: www.adit.ru

Nadezhda Brakeker, Centre of Informatisation in the sphere of Culture